THE UNIVERSITY AT A GLANCE

The Kumar Bhaskar Varma Sanskrit and Ancient Studies University was set up with a notification by the government of Assam dated 24th May, 2011 of the Kumar Bhaskar Varma Sanskrit and Ancient Studies University Act, 2011, which received assent of the Hon'ble Governor of Assam on 16th March, 2011. The Preamble of the Act states, "by this act, the government of Assam goes to establish and constitute a teaching, affiliating, research and residential university at Nalbari". The University is so named, as Kumar Bhaskar Varma, a great monarch of Assam of 7th century AD was a patron of Sanskrit Studies and during his rule, Vedic culture and Sanskrit knowledge came to flourish in Assam. It is the only Sanskrit university in the North Eastern region of India. As per Executive Council Resolution, the date of establishment of the University is 15th November, 2011. It adopted a Kalidasian line—"SaraswatiSrutimahatamMahiyatam" meaning "May the sayings of the wise be glorified" as its motto. The University initially functioned from its temporary campus at Nalbari College. Subsequently, the State Government allotted 100 Bighas (33 Acres) of land for setting up the permanent campus at Namati village, Nalbari District. The University shifted to its permanent campus on August 3rd, 2015. The University stands for imparting education leading to graduate and post-graduate degrees and research degrees viz. M.Phil. and Ph.D in Sanskrit and only research degrees in Ancient Studies. It also offers academic and research programmes under the School of Humanities as per societal requirements. It seeks to explore knowledge, disseminate quality education and popularize Sanskrit in the region and among its people. To that end, the University offers Post-Graduate Programmes in Sanskrit (Sahitya), Sanskrit (Vedic Studies), Integrated MA in Sanskrit, Assamese, Education, Philosophy and Political Science, M.Phil Programmes in Sanskrit (Sahitya), Education and Political Science, Post-Graduate Diploma in Gandhian Studies (PGDGS) and Certificate Courses on Computer Application, Sasvarvedapatha, Karmakanda Prashikshanam and Yogic Science. Subsequent to a recent amendment of the University Act, sustenance and the development of Traditional Sanskrit education of the state is another important task that the University performs.

VISION, MISSION, OBJECTIVES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Vision

शुद्धशास्त्रज्ञानोद्भाषितजनैर्युतसमाजसंरचनाय महत्त्वपूर्णविदानप्रदानम् To become a substantial contributor towards making a society of people enlightened with knowledge which is pure and eternal.

The University stands for imparting education leading to graduate and post graduate degrees and research degrees viz. M.Phil. and Ph. D. in Sanskrit and only research degrees in Ancient Studies. At the same time, with the provision of the Act, the university is going to introduce academic programmes in Humanities, Social Sciences as well as other disciplines as per societal requirements.

CORE VALUES

The core values of the University are—

- Appreciation of the Sanskrit based ancient Indian Knowledge System as relevant in present day context.
- Connecting ancient Indian values based on Sanskrit literature with modern values.
- Creating a society based on pure and eternal knowledge.
- Developing inherent potentialities of individual.
- Conducting scientific and credible research linking with Sanskrit based Indian Knowledge System.
- Carrying on Sanskrit based ancient Indian legacy to the next generation.

ADMINISTRATION

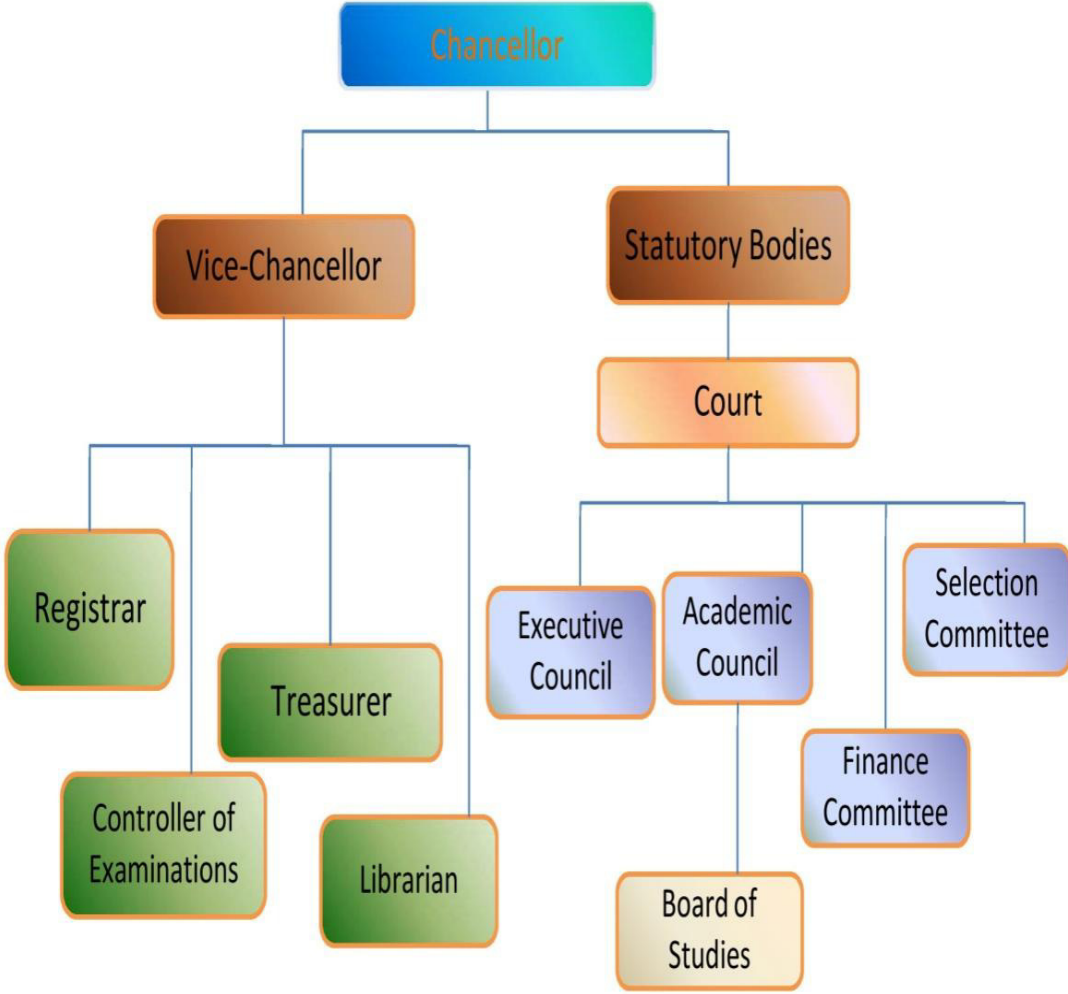

The University is established as a teaching, affiliated, research and residential state university. Besides offering programmes under the School of Sanskrit Studies and the School of Humanities, the process has been initiated for making the School of Ancient Studies functional. Moreover, since 2017, the University is involved in the process of administering the academic aspect of Sanskrit Tols in Assam.

The Hon'ble Governor of Assam acts as the Chancellor of the University. The Vice-Chancellor heads the University and is guided by the Executive Council in taking decisions. In turn, the office of the Registrar executes the decisions in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor on matters of development and administration. The Academic Council looks after the syllabus, reforms or changes in syllabus, research and extension activities and other allied academic matters. Both Executive Council and Academic Council work under the University Court.

The organizational structure, provision for different administrative posts and their functions are clearly delineated in the University Act. The organizational structure of the University includes—

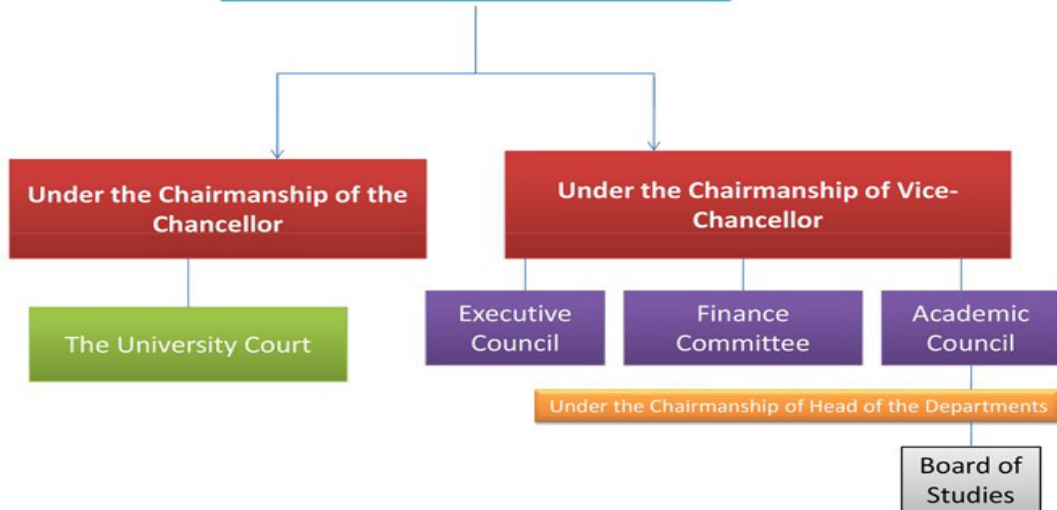

1. The Chancellor: As being a state University, the Governor of Assam is the Chancellor of the University
2. Vice-Chancellor: The Governor of Assam in his capacity as the Chancellor appoints the Vice Chancellor based on the recommendations of an Advisory Board. The Vice-Chancellor is the ex-officio member and Chairman of the Executive Council, Academic Council and Construction Committee and ex-officio member of the University Court.
3. Registrar: The Registrar is appointed by the Executive Council and serves as an ex-officio member of the University Court as well as member Secretary of the Executive Council, Academic Council and the Construction Committee. The Registrar monitors the administrative as well as academic activities, records and infrastructure of the University.
4. Treasurer: The Treasurer of the University is appointed by the Executive Council. The office of the Treasurer monitors the financial aspect and offers policy inputs regarding the financial decision of the University.
5. Controller of Examinations: The Controller of Examinations looks after the issues related to examinations including filling up of form, conduct of examination, declaration of result and award of the mark-sheets and certificates.
6. Court: The Court is the highest enforcing authority of the University. The Court reviews the broad policies and programmes of the University and suggests measures for the improvement and implementation of such policies and programmes.
7. Executive Council: The Executive Council is the chief executive body of the University. The composition, power and functions of the Executive Council are clearly laid down in the University Act. Its powers range from instituting and conferring degrees, fellowships and scholarships to that of appointment of the officers and teachers of the University.
8. The Academic Council: The Academic Council approves matters related to academic issues including revision of curriculum, courses and examination.
9. Board of Studies: The Board of Studies is concerned with academic matters including curriculum assessment and its revision for the respective departments. It is composed of faculty members representing the particular Department and an external expert consultant.
